

Reference Sheet 300.06

Loading Chute V300TF/16D

Type of project:	Ship loading of cement
Scope of supply:	1 unit
Capacity:	Max 250 m ³ /h
Client:	VDE / CBR, Belgium
Year:	1998

Detail Information

The loading chute is used for loading of cement in both open ships and ships with small tanks. The loading chute has a total length of 10,5 meters and has a modular construction with internal overlapping guide cones in steel and NPG bellow sections.

The loading chute is connected to a central filter.

Copyright © - The right to alterations is reserved

